Honorary Chair: Mary Davidson Cohen

Co-Chairs: Steve & Wanda Wilkinson

Greg Wolf & Kelly Duffy Wolf

June 28, 2008

What is “Stems”?

A multi-cultural celebration of fine wine and food, arts and entertainment, fun and fancy – all against the backdrop of the beautiful Overland Park Arboretum . . . in other words, a really fun summertime party for a great cause – the Arts and Recreation Foundation of Overland Park.

Tell me more!

Stroll among the gardens enjoying wine (you'll receive a complimentary hand-painted wine glass as you enter!) and other beverages, great food from our community's best restaurants, music, dancing, art and even a gift shop if you need a couple more of those wine glasses! It's a fabulous evening with friends, all for the very reasonable price of $75/person.

What makes this event unique?

10 sensational stations each with a singular theme showcasing so much of the arts and culture our community has to offer. There will be music and artists of every stripe to enjoy. You can see from the list of “working titles” for these areas that they are fun and diverse and sure to provide surprises at every turn!

How will attending make a difference to our community?

All proceeds benefit the Arts and Recreation Foundation of Overland Park and its support of public art projects and expansion of the Deanna Rose Children's Farmstead and the Arboretum. A portion of the proceeds will be used for a master plan project in each area. Sponsorship opportunities as well as tickets are available. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charitable corporation, and a portion of each ticket price is eligible as a tax-deductible contribution to the extent allowed by law.

Order your tickets online – or contact us about sponsorship opportunities.
